

Susanne van Niekerk is our contact in South Africa.

She is also our distributor for Move to Learn products that have been translated into the African languages. She is presently working on a translation of 'Ten Gems for the Brain' in Zulu and Xhosa.

Born in Germany, Susanne lived in Seychelles until the age of 17 and has since settled in Durban, South Africa where she is married with 2 children.

She has a Montessori Early Childhood (2.5 to 6 years) Diploma and has taught Montessori pre-school since 2000. She has an immense interest in 'learning disabilities' and has spent many years researching effective prevention methods.

Susanne is a qualified Integrated Learning Therapy practitioner, Audiblox tutor, THRASS (Teaching Handwriting, Reading and Spelling Skills) tutor and a Montessori Teacher Trainer and has spoken at provincial and national conferences on the topics "Going back to the basics – addressing Learning Difficulties through movement", "Montessori and Movement", and on "The Neuro-educational approach to Learning Readiness". She also runs an intensive 2-day Movement-Training Workshop for parents and teachers, which has been very successfully received in various centres throughout South Africa, Swaziland and the United States.
